Dear Brother Darnall:

Your prompt reply to my recent letter is appreciated. We have scheduled our singing school for August 27 through September 3.

Presently we are engaged in our Bible school workshop. A great deal of interest is being generated concerning this important phase of our work.

I hope that as one of the special features of our singing school, we will be able to get our young people together 30 minutes to an hour each afternoon, Monday through Friday, of that week. Our young people are definitely in need of training and encouragement in this field. We are hoping to get the support of all congregations in this area and really have a good number present each evening.

We will be in contact with you again nearer the time.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
